

Ash Wednesday - 10:00 am

Land Acknowledgement

We gather here mindful of the many who, for millennia, have called this valley home or depended on its trails for safe passage. We know this community as Fernie; it is also the unceded territory of the Ktunaxa people. May we be good and gracious guests of this corner of Creation.

Lighting the Christ Candle

Fire and light come together in the flames that dance atop this candle – refining fire, fire that burns, light that pierces, light that soothes. Thanks be for fire and light.

Peter Chynoweth, Yellowknife, NT

From The Book of Alternative Services

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God,
You despise nothing you have made
And forgive the sins of all who are penitent.
Create and make in us new and contrite hearts,
that we, worthily lamenting our sins
and acknowledging our brokenness,
may obtain of you, the God of all mercy,
perfect remission and forgiveness;
Through Jesus Christ our Lord,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever.

Reading for Ash Wednesday

Matthew 6.1-6, 16-21

Concerning Almsgiving

‘Beware of practising your piety before others in order to be seen by them; for then you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

‘So whenever you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be praised by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your alms may be done in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Concerning Prayer

'And whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, so that they may be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. But whenever you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Concerning Fasting

'And whenever you fast, do not look dismal, like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces so as to show others that they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, so that your fasting may be seen not by others but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Concerning Treasures

'Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Reflection - The Reverend Andrea L. Brennan - Why Penitence? Why Lent?

From The Book of Alternative Services

Dear friends in Christ,
Every year at the time of the Christian Passover
We celebrate our redemption through the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Lent is a time to prepare for this celebration
and to renew our life in the paschal mystery.
We begin this holy season
by remembering our need for repentance,
and for the mercy and forgiveness proclaimed in the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

We begin our journey to Easter with the sign of ashes,
an ancient sign,
speaking of the frailty and uncertainty of human life,
and marking the penitence of the community as a whole.

I invite you therefore, in the name of the Lord, to observe a holy Lent by self-examination, penitence, prayer,
fasting and almsgiving,
and by reading and meditating on the word of God.

First Prayer of Confession

From lack of reverence to truth and beauty;
from a calculating or sentimental mind;
from going along with mean and ugly things;

Holy One, deliver us.

From cowardice that dares not face truth;
laziness content with half-truth;
or arrogance that purports to know it all;

Holy One, deliver us.

From artificial life and worship;
from all that is hollow or insincere;
from trite ideals and cheap pleasures;
from mistaking vulgarity for humour;

Holy One, deliver us.

From being pompous, or rude;
from cynicism about others;
from intolerance or cruel indifference;

Holy One, deliver us.

From being satisfied with things as they are,
in the church or in the world;
from failing to share your outrage about injustice;

Holy One, deliver us.

From selfishness,
self-indulgence,
or self-pity

Holy One, deliver us.

From token concern for the poor,
for lonely or loveless people;
from confusing faith with good feeling,
or love with wanting to be loved;

Holy One, deliver us.

For everything in us that may hide your light;
Holy One, light of life, forgive us. Amen.

Second Prayer of Confession

There are some things I can only share with you,
O God, decisions I have made that I regret,
bringing brokenness into my living.

I offer brokenness to you, risen Christ, as confession.
I open myself to you, cleansing Spirit,
asking for renewal and for wisdom.
Hear the prayers of my deepest self in my silent prayer.

(a time of silent prayer)

From The Book of Alternative Services

Almighty God,
From the dust of the earth you have created us.
May these ashes be for us a sign
Of our mortality and penitence,
And are a reminder that only by your gracious gift
Are we given eternal life;
Through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Extinguishing our Candles

As we enter the 40 days of Lent,
may we hold tight to the promise of the resurrection,
knowing that one day, we know not yet what day,
we will be together again, not necessarily as we wish,
but as we are able. Amen

Sending Forth

Anyone in Christ becomes a new person altogether,
the past is finished and gone,
everything becomes fresh and new.

Glory to God, whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine!
Glory to God from generation to generation
in the world, in the church, and in our lives!

For anyone who wishes to do so, Reverend Andrea will be imposing/anointing with ashes.
Please stay in your vehicle, put the window(s) down and turn off the engine. Please ensure you are wearing a mask. Andrea+ will approach you, wearing a mask, and will impose ashes while saying "Remember, you are dust and to dust you shall return". When she has moved back to the sidewalk, please drive away so the next person can receive their ashes. In between vehicles, Andrea+ will sanitize her hands.
